 - The conference has been renamed as the Georgia Career & Leadership Development Conference (GCLDC).
 - 8 advisors and 13 students will be attending.

- As part of the conference, there are community service projects we participate in. We are collecting Toys for Tots (Georgia Student Government Assoc.) & Children's Books (National Technical Honor Society). Please bring new unwrapped toys & books to Ms. Snyder-room 198 or Mrs. Turner-room 587)
- SLC mobile app wall:
 - Be sure to download app and communicate with each other on the SLC wall. Ask questions, support each other, post fund raiser ideas and more. Be informed. Be involved. Be in touch.
 - Shannon asked that SLC members go ahead and download the app while in the meeting.
 - There were a few questions about privacy. Students were told that it isn't mandatory to download the app and that they can always adjust their own privacy settings to their personal preferences with the app.
- Volunteer opportunities reminder:
 - Teen Maze:
 - October 20-29 at the different Bulloch County High Schools.
 - The Teen Maze is a unique, interactive learning experience that allows teens to go through life lessons in a practical, safe environment. You will work with 10th graders from the surrounding schools. Each student enters the maze at the same place; however, where they exit depends on the choices they make. Choices range from underage drinking, drug use, risky sexual behavior, bullying or successfully graduating from high school.
